

Great and Precious Promises

2 Peter 1:1-4

Gary Inrig

June 28, 2009

You can never starve a person who is feeding on God's promises.

- I. God's magnificent promises are essential ingredients for our spiritual well-being
 - A. The heart of the gospel is knowing God through the Lord Jesus (verses 1, 2)

- B. Knowing God is the basis of his power and provision in our lives (verses 3)

- C. God's transforming power is linked to his magnificent promises

- II. God's magnificent promises need to be understood and embraced

- A. God's promises are grounded in God's character and competence

- B. God's promises are made sure in Christ Jesus

- C. God's promises are transforming in their impact

Conclusion

Great and Precious Promises

2 Peter 1:1-4

Gary Inrig

June 28, 2009

You can never starve a person who is feeding on God's promises.

I. God's magnificent promises are essential ingredients for our spiritual well-being

A. The heart of the gospel is knowing God through the Lord Jesus (verses 1, 2)

B. Knowing God is the basis of his power and provision in our lives (verses 3)

C. God's transforming power is linked to his magnificent promises

II. God's magnificent promises need to be understood and embraced

A. God's promises are grounded in God's character and competence

B. God's promises are made sure in Christ Jesus

C. God's promises are transforming in their impact

Conclusion